THE FEDERALISM OF HRISTO BOTEV

(Summary)

Doyno Doynov writes about the federalism of Hristo Botev. He points out the fact that the problem has not been reviewed especially in the historical literature. He observes the evolution of Botev's outlooks about a Balkan, Danubian and All-European federation. Botev follows and studies the most progressive European idea - the idea of a Brotherhood union of all people and nations on the world, the idea of people's unity. His ideas are analyzed and illustrated with thoughts and fragments from his publicistic pieces of work in "Duma", "Znanie" and other.
