

Svetla Yaneva

THE REDEMPTIVE ACTIVITY OF THE BROTHERS HADJITOSHEVI
DURING THE SECOND HALF OF THE XIX CENTURY

(Summary)

In an article, called "The Redemptory activity of the Brothers Hadjitoshevi in the Second Half of the XIX Century" Svetla Yaneva reviews the redemptory activities of the famous clan from Vratza in the second half of the XIXth century on the basis of recently discovered and published materials. A rich documentary material is given to reveal the significant and common practice and approach for redeeming taxes in the second half of the XIX century. It is emphasized on the fact that the redemptory activities expand beyond the boundaries of the region (Svishtov, Pleven, Lovetch). The author analyses and points out each brother's position in the general redemptory activity during the particular period.