

Nikolay Kotev, Sergei Lagoda

AFGHANISTAN 1978 - 1981: FROM REVOLUTION TO INVASION

(Summary)

With this publication the author fills in chronologically his research on the Soviet-Afghan war. He makes an overview of the literature about this topic, he follows the interior situation in Afghanistan as well as the military operations, and he sets the international attitude and the interactions between the interested parties. The research also introduces documentary sources that have not been published yet.