

Rumyana Parvanova

BULGARIAN POLITICAL FORCES AND THE PROJECT FOR EUROPEAN FEDERAL UNION (1930)

(Summary)

The article reviews the main proposals in the “Memorandum of the French government for organizing a European Federal Union”, bearing the date May 1, 1930, known also as “Project Brianne”. Bulgarian government received an invitation from the “Quai d’Orsay” to express its opinion on the document. The proposals of the French Prime Minister A. Brianne prompted the press of all political parties and authoritarian nationalist formations to express their attitude not only to “Project Brianne,” but also to evaluate the role of France in international relations in postwar Europe. The author also presents the basic principles and proposals set out in the response of the Bulgarian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.