

Emil Aleksandrov

THE BEGINNING OF FIRST WORLD WAR AND THE NEW PROVOCATIONS AT THE BRITISH DIPLOMACY

(Summary)

This study aims to highlight the new provocations at the British diplomacy in the early months of the crisis related to the outbreak of the Great War. It also discusses the role of British Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey and whether his actions appear correct or not, so structured political configuration.