

Rumyana Parvanova

THE FLOUR-MILLING AND THE LOCAL INDUSTRY
ENCOURAGEMENT LAWS (1894, 1905)

(Summary)

The article examines the stages through which the flour-milling industry passed between the late 19th century and the first decade of the 20th century. Several factors contributed to the upward trend in the milling – the increase in cereal yields, the construction of a railway network and the establishment of new banks. The article details are considered laws encouragement of the Bulgarian industry (1894, 1905) and their application in the milling. It is proved that they contributed to the introduction of new technologies, accelerated the industrialization of the country and expanded the marketability of the economy.