

Viktor Rogozenski*

THE DISINTEGRATION OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA (JUNE 1992 – JANUARY 1993) THROUGH THE VIEWPOINT
OF THE BULGARIAN PRESS

(Summary)

The object of analysis is the information and comments published in the most circulated and significant newspapers during the period 1992–1993, which informed the Bulgarian society about the events related to the disintegration of Czechoslovakia. The selection of analyzed sources includes materials from independent publications as well as from the party dailies and weeklies of the main political parties. The conclusion made is that only the most important facts related to the process of Czechoslovakian disintegration were present on the pages of the Bulgarian press, and they were often gleaned from foreign agencies and conveyed without excessive emotionality.

Keywords: Czech Republic, Slovakia, Bulgarian press, disintegration of Czechoslovakia, “gentle divorce”, CSFR.

* Viktor Rogozenski, PhD - Institute for Historical Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences;
e-mail: viktorrogozenski@abv.bg